DAYTON, Ohio, March 12, 1969 --- The Music Department of the University of Dayton will present Miss Catherine Leslie Greene in her Senior Piano Recital on Sunday Evening, March 23, 1969, in the Boll Theatre of the John F. Kennedy Union at seven-thirty o'clock.

Miss Greene was born in San Francisco, California, in 1947, and is the daughter of Major and Mrs. Ronald Greene of 1165 Mint Springs, Fairborn, Ohio. She began the study of piano at the age of five in Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1956 and 1957, she received a Performance Certificate with Merit from England.

While attending high school at Julianne High School in Dayton, Ohio, she received the silver and gold medals from Julianne High School. During the four years at the University of Dayton, she has performed twice for the Ohio Federation of Music Club's Competitions.

She has performed in the 1968 and the 1969 Piano Master Class conducted by Mr. Lorin Hollander, Concert Pianist, which was sponsored by the Living Arts Program. Last June, she received honorable mention in the American Music Scholarship Contest endorsed by Rudolf Serkin, Concert Pianist. She has participated in numerous contests over the past thirteen years receiving awards, which includes two awards from the Royal School of Music, England.

Miss Greene has been a piano student of Mr. Veryl L. Zech, faculty member of the Music Department, while attending the University of Dayton. Miss Greene is a Candidate for the Bachelor of Music with a Piano Major.

Miss Greene will perform the following selections in her Recital: Sonata, K. 331, by Mozart, Rigaudon from "Le Tombeau de Couperin" by Ravel, Consolation No. 3, by Liszt, Pastorale from Années de Pèlerinage, Suisse by Liszt, Transcendental Etude No. 2 by Liszt, Rurulia Hungarica, Opus 32/a, No. 3, by Dohnányi, Excursion, Opus 20, No. 1, by Barber, Nouvelle Etude, No. 2, by Chopin, and the Scherzo in B minor, Opus 20, by Chopin.
